So glad to hear from you.
I checked in our stock room and we are clear out of fog in square, only have white.
Sorry, and let me know when I can help out further.
Regards,
Jody

HI Jody! It has been awhile! Hope you had a great holiday season...Happy New Year...and all of that! :)

Looks like our house might be ready to move in to come April... oh boy!

I am wondering if you will be getting back in the square plates in fog...I see on the website even the color is gone from your choices...

I am going to need to order some more towel bars and things...will be in touch on that.

Curious on the plates now...10" square and 11.5" square in Fog

thanks! [REDACTED]
