Well now I am really confused..yes, the excel report says in the actual cost column we have paid $1,721,016.50

Where did I get the $1,249,311.27??? I couldn't have made it up?

Where is the difference of $20,000.27 attributed to? Bob's fee, right?

Hi [REDACTED]

The excel report should say $1,721,016. Did I send you the wrong report??

Hi Sue...question...I'm confused...why is our "actual cost" not the same on both spread sheets? On the spread sheet we submit to the bank it states we have paid $1,741,016.77 ...and on your spread sheet where we compare the "real" quote we have paid $1,249,311.27?

Attached are updated spreadsheets. Bob is working on the Costs to Complete and we'll send that to you tomorrow.

I haven't updated payments to Bob...will update that when we send reports tomorrow.

Have a nice day!

Sue
