Sono FH says the flyer on the website is old! the price per a day is $100 not $50!...I was like woa! Patty, the girl I spoke with said she would speak to the GM and see if they can honor the price but she is not sure..I said ok, I would have to speak to my husband about it ...she wants ty to come...its the one that likes him...hopefully she will call me back and at least offer a discount.
