Title: Fighting Global Anti-Semitism

Dear Jeffrey,

I want to share with you Rabbi Daniel Alter's personal and heart-wrenching story – as the victim of an anti-Semitic attack in a residential district of Berlin with his young daughter by his side.

His story and other anti-Semitic incidents convinced the German Parliament to pass a resolution to combat anti-Semitism. Parliamentarians from three political parties thanked just one organization for its assistance with the resolution. AJC.

Immediately prior to the Greek Parliament's resounding vote to suspend state funding for the neo-Nazi Golden Dawn party, which holds 18 of 300 seats in the legislature, the Greek Prime Minister met with one organization friendly to Greece and committed to combating global anti-Semitism. AJC.
