I'm sorry that your job is not mu=h fun. I'm glad you have work right now too since it has been so hard =o find work for many of my friends. Where are you working now?

I'm not going to be able to come visit today because my apartment i= a mess and I need to clean and Sunday I will be singing in the choir at m= church until 3pm. Would you like to come and hear the choir. It is a very=big church though. After the choir sings I will then have a meeting for a =rip I am taking this next weekend.

When do you leave again? I'm afraid that I won't be able to spe=d time this whole next week. : /
