So I have been reading about cheap airfare booking techniques and it seems right now american airlines is 20% off on miles if you get more than 25 000 (500$).

I compared booking a flight using these miles with buying it the normal way on a one way nonstop from jfk to paris in 3 days from now;

business - 4300$ regular booking or 1000$ with miles ( plus I get extra miles with amex if I use that to pay for it)

economy - 2240$ regular or 600$ with miles + extra amex points.

So cool
