Hi my dear Jeffrey:) How are you?
Long time didn't see you :(

Everything is good with me, thank you for asking. (funny I was just thinking about you yesterday) I guess this is how the law of attraction works :) lol Last two months have been really slowly model-wide, so it made me think to go to Japan and earn some money.
So I'll probably do that. Not sure when though. Maybe in January.

Meanwhile I'm working on myself a lot.. I workout, I work on my pronunciation, I read a lot, learn about a spiritual human psychology and the quantum physics.
I honestly in such a better place right now than I ever been (mentally). I'm finally learning how to love my true self and also care about my true self rather than what I think I need (ideally).

I miss you and Sveta so much. Hope I'll see you one day soon.
Sending you my love,
