The Old Ones are the Best Ones

March 14, 2012

Shakespeare. Leonardo. Chanel. You can't beat a classic, which is why we're focusing on the places you want to visit time and time again this week. In London, channel the royals (or the Made in Chelsea crew, if you must) at the Cadogan, sandwiched between Knightsbridge and the King's Road. In Paris, mix with the Euro jet set at the Sezz, which doesn't bother with anything as ordinary as check in staff or a concierge - instead, guests get their own personal assistant. And across the pond, the Michelangelo gives you a shot of old school New York glamour with lashings of marble, velvet, and flouncy gold drapes - you'd never guess you were seconds from Times Square.
