Sea You in the Caribbean

March 7, 2012

The best way to see the British and American Virgin Islands? From a private yacht. We're launching the 46-foot, three-cabin Magic Inspiration today - a stunner of a catamaran that accommodates six and starts at an extremely reasonably $250 per person. If you're more landlubber than seafarer, head to the Sivory, a peaceful seaside spot in the Dominican Republic's Punta Cana with beach butlers and an 8,000-bottle wine cellar among the upscale amenities. And we've both snow lovers and sun seekers covered: Tenaya Lodge is a refined base camp in woods just outside Yosemite National Park, while this week's Mystery sale takes you to the Riviera Maya for fish tacos, sun salutations and salty margs. Cheers.
