Continuation of FD-302 of (U) Interview of [REDACTED], On 09/06/2019, Page 2 of 3

Epstein reported to her he was unaware of how he got the car on his neck. [REDACTED] stated inmate companions make log book entries related to suicide watch inmates. [REDACTED] stated Epstein alleged his cell mate injured him and had reported it to a corrections officer. [REDACTED] stated Epstein denied self harm. [REDACTED] related Epstein informed her he had "no interested in killing myself" and that he "had a wonderful life". [REDACTED] further reviewed her reported and related the details of the narrative included therein.

[REDACTED] stated she was not comfortable taking Epstein off suicide watch but rather put him into a step down of psychological observation which was similar in nature to suicide watch. [REDACTED] stated psychological observation allowed Epstein to posses hygiene products, two novels, to attend his legal visits, and to shower. [REDACTED] stated based on the step down Epstein would have standard inmate clothing, a flex pen, a tooth brush, toothpaste, a bar of soap, and deodorant. [REDACTED] stated he also was provided two novels. [REDACTED] stated she was cautious with Epstein's case and his self reporting. [REDACTED] stated she observed signs of positivity and stated Epstein "adamantly denied suicide"

[REDACTED] stated Epstein was upset about not having access to his legal paper work. [REDACTED] stated the contact with Epstein was good and he was energetic, smiling, appropriate and appreciative. [REDACTED] stated Epstein asked if he would see her the next day. [REDACTED] stated Epstein was respectful and kinds which was uncharacteristic for other inmates she sees.

[REDACTED] stated she discussed the decision to step down Epstein with Dr. [REDACTED] and Associate Warden [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated both [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] concurred with her determination regarding Epstein. [REDACTED] stated "I made the decision with the consent" of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated Epstein related he felt safer in psychological observation.

[REDACTED] explained it was not healthy for inmates to state on suicide watch for extended periods of time and they are re-evaluated on a day to day basis. [REDACTED] stated Epstein wished to stay on psychological observation. [REDACTED] stated she was not present at any Special Housing Unit (SHU) meetings where Epstein was discussed. [REDACTED] related additional details from her report and that Epstein was housed in the SHU as determined by Bureau of Prisons staff at MCC for his own safety but was not in protective custody.
