I spoke to [REDACTED] about our request to withhold our real names. She feels strongly that the folks presenting should say their names (real or otherwise) when they begin their presentations to humanize themselves and make it seem like what we would do in court. I'll leave it to you to decide if you want to use your first name with a made up last name or just say your name quickly and assume most won't remember. Either way, we need to tell [REDACTED] (ideally tonight or give her a list in the morning) the name you will use and your role in the mock presentation.

She also needs a list of the names we are running by prospective jurors in the am. I think the list is:

Ghislaine Maxwell
Jeffrey Epstein
Victim Fake names – please fill in here
Anyone else?

I can send her the list once you fill in or feel free to just email her directly.

Thanks,
