Hi [REDACTED] - Check out Lori's response. Sounds like this may be a plea. Remind me of when you are gone? I'm not sure that I want [REDACTED] at the discovery conference just in case he decides to go to trial, I would rather not let Lori get a look at her before trial.

Hi Lori – I would like to schedule the Clark Discovery Conference for next week because the agents will be out of town the following two weeks. Can you tell me what days and times you are available next week?

We can do the discovery conference here in our office.

Thanks.
