Thanks, [REDACTED]. That sounds good, and we look forward to speaking with you, too. See you all tomorrow.

Best,
Johanna

Johanna,

We should all be around, but for convenience you can have security let me know when you arrive. Looking forward to speaking with you both at 9:30 tomorrow.

thanks,
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

I am writing to confirm our meeting with you tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. Whom should we ask for when we arrive?

Thank you,
Johanna

Suzanne,

Following up on the below and our brief conversation this afternoon, you're absolutely correct that I had said we'd send transcripts of the court proceedings thus far; they are attached.

You also had asked about additional information about written or otherwise recorded messages from (or in connection with, or referencing) victims. While we're not currently in a position to provide additional detail about those particular records (in terms of identifying information on those records themselves), we can give you related information that is more specific and I think may be more helpful. Separate from the messages, we have contemporaneous telephone records, including records from a cell phone that was registered to your client, in her name -- those cell phone records reflect numerous phone contacts with multiple girls who were underage at the time of the calls.

thank you,
[REDACTED]

Suzanne,

Following up on our conversations last week and yesterday, and in response to your email, we are available to meet with you and Johanna next week. Given our continued discussions, and the possibility of a voluntary interview with Ms. [REDACTED], we can confirm the understanding that we are able to hold in abeyance the grand jury appearance date of July 24, 2019, until further notice.

As we covered on the phone yesterday, you should feel free to reach out to any of us on the team if you have any questions as you meet with your client, and thank you in advance for copying all of our team on email
