Good morning Mr. Berman,

As you might know, I was acquainted with Jeffrey Epstein and Ghislaine Maxwell for more than two decades. I also published the first media series in the Daily Beast between 2010-2015 and then the first book, TrafficKING, (April 2016) on this child sex trafficking case.

I mistakenly spoke to Judge Richard Berman awhile back about the Epstein case. I forwarded him an email and assuming he did not forward it to you.

Please could you explain why 15 years after the Florida case was filed, 3 different DOJ administrations continue to protect a suspected serial child molester, known politely and for decades in his country, as "Randy Andy"?

Is it because of the special relationship with Great Britain?

Secondly, as I discussed with DOJ officials during 3 different administrations (George W.Bush, Barrack Obama and Donald Trump), why would Justice continue to grant procurers immunity from prosecution in different states where crimes were perpetrated?

The procurers include: Ghislaine Maxwell, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] In the US the sex crimes were perpetrated in NY, NM, CA, and USVI.

It seems that after USAO somewhat successfully indicted Epstein in 2019, almost 15 years after the first arrest, USAO can also indict the procurers identified in the complaints by named victims procured in NY.

Ghislaine Maxwell remains the most dangerous serial procurer. Maxwell personally introduced [REDACTED] to Prince Andrew, organized their sex trips, etc.

In this instance according to my conversations with [REDACTED] and Mike Fisten and several depositions, Epstein paid [REDACTED] for her services to Prince Andrew when she was 17. Epstein, according to [REDACTED] did not participate in those particular sex acts with Prince Andrew.

With your permission Sir, I would like to include a quote from you in my upcoming book.

Thank you for your time and consideration; and most of all for shining a light on the most significant child trafficking case in the US. A case that I risked my life investigating beginning in 2010.
