I think the position [REDACTED] ultimately settled on is that medical records unrelated to things we care about (i.e., that aren't about suicidality or his ultimate suicide) are fine to produce.

Are we okay with disclosing Epstein's medical records? Some of the records are directly related to the July 23 incident, although others relate to other conditions. I had thought that all of his medical records were being withheld.

Yes, you should have seen all this before, but it now has BOP's has segmented redactions. As with prior rounds, I am circulating to the Crim teams and OIG before the production version actually goes out.

This is mainly emails, but also includes at the start redacted medical records, not withheld in full under 7(A). Thanks.

All,

BOP has provided a production version of what I hope is the last set of documents to be released in Times v. BOP, 20-cv-833. I have saved the combined production file, named "2nd August 2020 Production, Times v BOP, 20-cv-833," here: \\usa.doj.gov\cloud\nys\Chambers\Shared\NYT\_v\_BOP-2020V00220\Documents from BOP\2nd August Production

Could the teams please review and confirm that this file can be released to the Times? Given the timing, it would be best to release these by the end of the week. Please let me know if you don't think review by Friday will be possible.

Thanks,

Hi all,

As you know, we agreed with the Times that BOP would produce some documents after the SJ papers were filed in Times v. BOP. It looks like it is going to take BOP through the end of next week to get the emails together. In the meantime, we are going to produce what should be the remaining non-email documents (with redactions) and a portion of the remaining emails.

The production version of these documents is attached here. Can you please review and confirm that it is okay for the attached to be sent to the Times? It should all be documents you've seen before—and I think I circulated most of the attached production version to you earlier this week. But there are now some new pages at the end—also not sure I got sign off from everyone on the production versions of the earlier stuff. We'd like to send this out by Tuesday, August 11, at latest if possible.

Also, I'm copying [REDACTED] [REDACTED] here. I will be out 08/12-08/18, and [REDACTED] has graciously agreed to cover this case while I am out. (If all goes according to plan, not much will be happening then anyway). Please copy her going forward so she can get up to speed.

Thanks and have a great weekend,
