

PATRICK J. SMITH
[REDACTED]

November 28, 2021

BY E-MAIL to [REDACTED]The Honorable Alison J. Nathan
United States District Judge
Southern District of New York
40 Foley Square
New York, New York 10007Re: United States v. Maxwell, No. 20 Cr. 330

Dear Judge Nathan:

On behalf of non-party [REDACTED], the independent administrator of the Epstein Victims' Compensation Program, and in accordance with the Court's memo-endorsement of our November 23, 2021 letter, we are making a third production to the Court of remaining documents responsive to defendant Maxwell's subpoena. We have posted the documents to a secure FTP site, which the Court, in its order dated November 27, 2021, indicated was a sufficient means of providing the documents. The credentials to the FTP site are the same as those we sent by email on November 26, 2021.

We are producing in this production claim packets sent to attorneys for the four individuals identified in the subpoena and email communications with those attorneys relating to the four individuals. We have redacted these documents in accordance with Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 49.1(a) and to remove references to claimants other than the four individuals identified in the subpoena.

We are available should the Court have any questions.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Patrick J. SmithPatrick J. Smith
Smith Villazor LLP

cc: AUSA [REDACTED], AUSA [REDACTED], AUSA [REDACTED], AUSA [REDACTED], [REDACTED], Christian R. Everdell, Esq., Jeffrey S. Pagliuca, Esq., Laura A. Menninger,
Esq., Mark Stewart Cohen, Esq., Bobbi C. Sternheim, Esq. (by e-mail)