We can make that work, thanks. We will note in the letter that the parties propose the defense submission be due at 3pm on Thursday, any reply be due at 12pm on Friday, and the court appearance take place Friday afternoon.

Thanks,

Understood, thanks. Would you agree to a 12pm Thursday deadline for your submission, and a 12pm Friday deadline for any written response from us, followed by the arraignment and bail hearing Friday afternoon? If so, we'll propose that to the Court.

We will reach out to Pretrial Services tomorrow to arrange for an interview.

Thanks, [REDACTED]. We are planning to make a bail submission on Thursday, subject to being able to communicate with our client. So we will need your help to arrange an interview with Pretrial Services.

Thanks Chris. We will request that the arraignment take place this Friday and will note your consent.

Are you planning to file a written submission in support of a bail application in advance of Friday? If so, would it make sense for us to include a proposed briefing schedule in our letter?

Along those same lines, please let us know if you need assistance coordinating an interview with Pretrial Services, which will need to take place in advance of any bail application.

Best,

Hi [REDACTED] –

We would prefer that the arraignment take place on Friday, rather than Wednesday, and will consent to an exclusion of speedy trial time until Friday. I don't think a call is necessary, but let me know if you want to discuss.

Thanks,

Chris

Chris and Mark,

We are planning to submit a letter to Judge Nathan this evening informing her that the Marshals expect Ms. Maxwell to arrive in SDNY in time for a court appearance this Wednesday, requesting that the Court schedule an arraignment, and requesting the exclusion of time through the arraignment date. We intend to seek the exclusion of time both for the transportation of the defendant from another district and to allow for us to discuss the terms of a protective order to cover discovery in this case.

If possible, we would like to include your views in that letter. Would you please let us know whether you have any preferences on scheduling and whether you will consent to the exclusion of speedy trial time?

We are also happy to have a call if that would be useful.

Thanks,

[REDACTED]

Chris and Mark,

We are working with the USMS in New Hampshire to add you both to the list of attorneys who may contact your client while she is detained there. To that end, the NH USMS have asked for the best phone numbers to contact you two. Would you please let me know what numbers to provide?

Thanks,

Chris, Mark, and Jeff,

We are writing to inform you that the FBI arrested your client, Ghislaine Maxwell, this morning in Bradford, New Hampshire. I have attached the indictment and arrest warrant, which we are providing to you as a courtesy while we seek the formal unsealing of the indictment in SDNY this morning. We will let you know when a district judge is assigned in SDNY. The defendant is currently being transported for arrest processing by the FBI, and our current expectation is that she will be presented this afternoon in the District of New Hampshire, via remote proceedings. We will update you as we learn more.

[REDACTED], and I are available for a call later this morning, if that would be useful. Please let us know what time would be convenient for you.

Thanks,
