Hey Guys – we continue to get requests from the Tartaglione defense team related to the Epstein investigation. In light of a recent request, can we please review your notes from inmates in the SHU on the date of the attempted suicide to determine if there are any inmates who gave statements that corroborate Tartaglione’s account that he saved Epstein’s life? We think this could arguably be penalty-phase Brady, so we’d like to review this in the first instance, and then discuss with you any disclosures we think need to be made.
