Thanks. I took out part of a sentence. If this is OK can you circulate to the group

Statement of U.S. Attorney Geoffrey S. Berman on the Detention of Jeffrey Epstein

U.S. Attorney Geoffrey S. Berman said: "We are pleased with Judge Richard M. Berman's decision today to detain Jeffrey Epstein without bail pending his trial. Epstein's alleged crimes of sex trafficking of young girls are horrific. Since these charges were announced last week, we have received many calls from his alleged victims and our investigation continues. I want to encourage others to come forward, so if you believe you are a victim of Jeffrey Epstein, at any location and at any time, please call: 1-800-Call FBI."

Hopefully Berman's decision goes our way...below is a proposed statement that we should finalize prior to the 10 am hearing:

Statement of U.S. Attorney Geoffrey S. Berman on the Detention of Jeffrey Epstein

U.S. Attorney Geoffrey S. Berman said: "We are pleased with Judge Richard M. Berman's decision today to detain Jeffrey Epstein without bail pending his trial. Epstein's alleged crimes of sex trafficking of young girls are heinous, and we are only beginning to learn the extent of his horrific network of victims. Since these charges were announced last week, we have received many calls from his alleged victims and our investigation continues. I want to encourage others to come forward, so if you believe you are a victim of Jeffrey Epstein, at any location and at any time, please call: 1-800-Call FBI."
