Sure, we'll track it down.

On May 6, 2020, at 3:53 PM, Berman, Geoffrey (USANYS) [REDACTED] wrote:

"Then, on March 9, 2020, at a press conference in another matter, Berman stated in prepared remarks that "[c]ontary to Prince Andrew's very public offer to cooperate with our investigation into Epstein's co-conspirators, an offer that was conveyed via press release, Prince Andrew has now completely shut the door on voluntary cooperation." Berman added that his office was "considering its options."

This is from a piece in the NYLJ by Evan Barr. The above is incorrect. It was not part of my prepared remarks. I was answering a reporter's question.

Can we get him to correct this on the online version if not the hard copy?
