On 11/16/2021, at 11:35 a.m. Eastern Time, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] called the FBI National Threat Operations Center (NTOC) to report she cared for Jeffrey Epstein as a nurse practitioner in 2000.

[REDACTED] provided the following information:

In August or September 2000, Epstein was staying at the Surrey Hotel in Manhattan, NY when [REDACTED] cared from him on one occasion for at least a 24-hour time period. During this time, [REDACTED] "experienced" what the victims went through. When asked if Epstein did something to [REDACTED], she stated she did not want to provide that information over the phone. While [REDACTED] cared for Epstein, Ghislaine Maxwell visited him. [REDACTED] did not want to provide any information on Maxwell over the phone.

[REDACTED] followed Epstein's case, and saw where jurors were selected for the trial. [REDACTED] did not report this information sooner as she was bound by HIPPA guidelines as Epstein was her patient. [REDACTED] spoke to many attorneys about what information she could "legally" provide about Epstein. [REDACTED] is not bound "legally" to not speak about her interaction with Maxwell.

[REDACTED] would like to speak to someone regarding this information in person as she has "significant information" that could "help" the
