Re: United States v. Ghislaine Maxwell, 20 Cr. 330 (AJN)

Dear Counsel:

Please note that the Government is designating the contents of this letter and its enclosures as "Confidential" under the Protective Order in this case. In recognition of the Government's obligations under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), and its progeny, we write to disclose the following information, in connection with the pending charges against your client, which the defendant may wish to argue is in some way helpful to the defense. This disclosure should not be taken to indicate that the Government believes the enclosed information is exculpatory.

During its investigation into the charges contained in the indictment in this case, the Government interviewed [REDACTED] on two occasions. The notes and 302s from those two interviews are enclosed. Please note that the Government is also designating those items as "Confidential" under the Protective Order in this case.

Very truly yours,

AUDREY STRAUSS
Acting United States Attorney
