Great, thanks. I'm free all day aside from that witness interview at 5. Thanks.

27th is fine with me. What time works for you?

I'm traveling to Bogota that day, so I don't think I can make the 28th work. I think in her initial email she said she was free on the 27th too?

If your client or anyone else believes at any time that they may be in imminent danger, they should immediately call 911. Their reporting threats to authorities will not interfere with or otherwise impact our investigation and we in no way want to impede any legal steps they wish to take to ensure their safety. Please let us know if you have any questions about this at all, as we do not want there to be any confusion or miscommunication about the importance of individuals being able to ensure their safety.

I expect we also could make ourselves available on a weekend day if that would be helpful, or we could set a time later in the week of the 26th. Or if none of that works, please let us know and we'll further confer internally about options.

While we're not currently in a position to provide additional detail about those particular records (in terms of identifying information on those records themselves), we can give you related information that is more specific and I think may be more helpful. Separate from the messages, we have contemporaneous telephone records, including records from a cell phone that was registered to your client, in her name -- those cell phone records reflect numerous phone contacts with multiple girls who were underage at the time of the calls.

Given our continued discussions, and the possibility of a voluntary interview with Ms. [REDACTED], we can confirm the understanding that we are able to hold in abeyance the grand jury appearance date of July 24, 2019, until further notice.
