Suzanne,

We wanted to follow up on our most recent meeting the week before last—as we mentioned then, we think it would be productive and useful to be able to speak with [REDACTED] directly, if she is willing to convey any information to us directly, including with any of the protections and/or limitations we previously discussed. Or if you don't believe that would be productive, please let us know and we can consider possible next steps. Either way, we're also happy to chat via phone if that would be useful as well.

thanks,

[REDACTED]

Would it be possible to meet at 3:30 instead of 2:30 on October 18th? Thanks, and apologies for all the scheduling difficulties.

Thanks,

Suzanne,

Thanks, and following up, at least three of the five team members will be traveling each of the other days next week that you mentioned, so if it's at all possible to still do the 10th as originally proposed that would be ideal.

thanks,

Okay. My other commitment would require me to be out of the city all day 10/10. So please do let me know on Monday whether any of the other dates (10/15 - after 2 pm; 10/16 - after 2:30; 10/17 - anytime) would work. If not, I'll try to move things around to make 10/10 work. Many thanks and safe travels to all!

We have a number of meetings today—I believe we could do a call anytime up until 2:30 pm, and then likely not again until approximately 8 pm or later, but both subject to confirmation with the team. We're also relatively free tomorrow. Could you give us a sense of the topic and the urgency?

I think it's unlikely the trial will be quite that brief, but if you're not available later that week, we can schedule it for the 28th and at least one or both of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] will be able to attend. Would you be able to do late afternoon?

thanks,

[REDACTED] - Thank you for your prompt response. We will advise our client accordingly.

As for scheduling, can we plan for August 28 with the hope that your trial will be over by then (or perhaps will be in jury deliberations such that you can get away for a meeting)? If it turns out that your trial isn't over by then, perhaps we can still meet with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] that day. Please let us know if that would work.

Many thanks,

Suzanne,

First, and most importantly, to the extent your client or any of her family, friends, loved ones, etc., feel threatened by any communications or other actions, they should not hesitate to immediately report that to authorities, whether local police, the local FBI office, and/or any other appropriate law enforcement. If your client or anyone else believes at any time that they may be in imminent danger, they should immediately call 911. Their reporting threats to authorities will not interfere with or otherwise impact our investigation and we in no way want to impede any legal steps they wish to take to ensure their safety. Please let us know if you have any questions about this at all, as we do not want there to be any confusion or miscommunication about the importance of individuals being able to ensure their safety.

Regarding a follow-up meeting, I unfortunately have a short trial starting August 26. Would it be possible to meet sometime this coming week, rather than the following? I expect we also could make ourselves available on a weekend day if that would be helpful, or we could set a time later in the week of the 26th. Or if none of that works, please let us know and we'll further confer internally about options.

thank you,

[REDACTED] – Thanks for your time on the phone yesterday. Please let us know if you are available to meet on Monday, August 26, or Tuesday, August 27, to continue our discussions and attorney proffer.

Also, I know you had limited time yesterday (and apologies for going over my initial estimate for the call), but one of the things I had intended to share with you are some of the threatening communications that have been received by [REDACTED] husband. Attached is an example of a recent one. We don't want to do anything that may impact your ongoing investigation, so defer to you as to what should be done with respect to this.

Thanks and we look forward to hearing from you as to your availability for a meeting.

Subject: RE: SDNY Grand Jury Subpoena Dated July 5, 2019 issued to [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

Suzanne,

Following up on our conversations last week and yesterday, and in response to your email, we are available to meet with you and Johanna next week. Given our continued discussions, and the possibility of a voluntary interview with [REDACTED] [REDACTED], we can confirm the understanding that we are able to hold in abeyance the grand jury appearance date of July 24, 2019, until further notice.

As we covered on the phone yesterday, you should feel free to reach out to any of us on the team if you have any questions as you meet with your client, and thank you in advance for copying all of our team on email communications, as we also discussed. I think I also said that we would send you the docket numbers of the primary civil cases, which are 15 Civ. 7433 (RWS) (SDNY), 17 Civ. 616 (JGK) (SDNY), and 08 Civ. 80736 (SDFL) (the CVRA litigation). I believe there are also a number of docketed civil cases involving Mr. Epstein in federal court in Florida, and there may also be additional state cases.

Separately, I don't recall if I said we would send this, but in case it is useful for your consideration, attached is an example of our standard proffer agreement.

In terms of scheduling, next week we are available at 2:30 on Monday; anytime on Tuesday except for 12:30 to 1:30; and at either 9:30 a.m. or 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, due to a court conference and other meetings during the day.

Please let us know if we're forgetting anything or if any additional information would be useful, and we look forward to being in touch soon.

Hi [REDACTED]. Thank you again for your time on the phone last week. I'm following up on our conversation. First, I'm writing to confirm that we have now been formally retained in connection with the above-referenced matter. Second, we are available to meet with you on July 29 at 2 pm. Please let us know whether that date and time works for you. Finally, I want to confirm our understanding that the July 24, 2019 appearance date listed in the above-referenced grand jury subpoena has been adjourned and no appearance is required on that date.

We look forward to hearing back from you regarding the above. Many thanks.

Best,
Suzanne
