I'm pretty full tomorrow with trial prep -- meetings with witnesses 10-12, 1-1:30, and 3-5. I could do 2:00 tomorrow, or after 5:00; or I also could do anytime on Thursday.

Suzanne,

Following up on the below and our brief conversation this afternoon, you're absolutely correct that I had said we'd send transcripts of the court proceedings thus far; they are attached.

You also had asked about additional information about written or otherwise recorded messages from (or in connection with, or referencing) victims. While we're not currently in a position to provide additional detail about those particular records (in terms of identifying information on those records themselves), we can give you related information that is more specific and I think may be more helpful. Separate from the messages, we have contemporaneous telephone records, including records from a cell phone that was registered to your client, in her name -- those cell phone records reflect numerous phone contacts with multiple girls who were underage at the time of the calls.

thank you,
[REDACTED]

Suzanne,

Following up on our conversations last week and yesterday, and in response to your email, we are available to meet with you and Johanna next week. Given our continued discussions, and the possibility of a voluntary interview with Ms. [REDACTED], we can confirm the understanding that we are able to hold in abeyance the grand jury appearance date of July 24, 2019, until further notice.

As we covered on the phone yesterday, you should feel free to reach out to any of us on the team if you have any questions as you meet with your client, and thank you in advance for copying all of our team on email communications, as we also discussed. I think I also said that we would send you the docket numbers of the primary civil cases, which are 15 Civ. 7433 (RWS) (SDNY), 17 Civ. 616 (JGK) (SDNY), and 08 Civ. 80736 (SDFL) (the CVRA litigation). I believe there are also a number of docketed civil cases involving Mr. Epstein in federal court in Florida, and there may also be additional state cases.

Separately, I don't recall if I said we would send this, but in case it is useful for your consideration, attached is an example of our standard proffer agreement.

In terms of scheduling, next week we are available at 2:30 on Monday; anytime on Tuesday except for 12:30 to 1:30; and at either 9:30 a.m. or 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, due to a court conference and other meetings during the day.

Please let us know if we're forgetting anything or if any additional information would be useful, and we look forward to being in touch soon.

Hi [REDACTED]. Thank you again for your time on the phone last week. I'm following up on our conversation. First, I'm writing to confirm that we have now been formally retained in connection with the above-referenced matter. Second, we are available to meet with you on July 29 at 2 pm. Please let us know whether that date and time works for you. Finally, I want to confirm our understanding that the July 24, 2019 appearance date listed in the above-referenced grand jury subpoena has been adjourned and no appearance is required on that date.

We look forward to hearing back from you regarding the above. Many thanks.

Best,
Suzanne
