[REDACTED] – I took a quick look at this and made edits in track. Could you please take a look and see what you think? Feel free to layer on if that's useful. And [REDACTED], if you wouldn't mind taking a glance at the Prince Andrew stuff in particular? And I'm happy to send up once we're finalized (and to discuss anything via phone if useful).

thanks,

[REDACTED]

Subject: GM Talking Points

Hey Guys – With apologies, we still don't have guidance from [REDACTED] on timing. I think, based on our preliminary conversation with her yesterday, it is extremely unlikely [REDACTED] is going to feel ready to move forward on Thursday, so I would not spend a lot of time worrying about being ready to go in 48 hours. We raised with her some of the concerns voiced on the call yesterday, and asked whether July 6 or 13 might still be an option, and she was going to raise those with [REDACTED] and get back to us. We will let you know as soon as we know more.

Unrelated, [REDACTED] will be briefing the AG on Thursday about a number of our higher profile upcoming cases, and she has asked us to put together some bullet/talking points for that call, including ones on Maxwell. Would you mind taking a look at the attached, and letting me know if you have any comments/edits as soon as possible? We need to get this to her later today.

Thanks very much,

[REDACTED]
