Sure. [REDACTED] reached out to [REDACTED] a month or so ago and the three of us spoke with him at the time, so he already has some background. We can do an update memo.

For a meeting with [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] set up she asked me to provide a briefing to [REDACTED] on our Epstein matter. She said that he is looking into the victim rights issues in Florida and wanted to understand what we are doing.

This was put in very friendly terms; She also thought it would be good if we got to know each other.

Set up as 30 minute meeting.

Would someone please prepare an update memo for me together with recommended talking points that I can take home this weekend?

Many thanks.
