

U.S. Department of Justice

Office of Justice Programs

Office of Sex Offender Sentencing, Monitoring, Apprehending, Registering, and Tracking

Washington, D.C. 20531

April 23, 2020

Dear [REDACTED]

This letter responds to your request, dated April 2, 2020, seeking information “related to every occasion that Jeffrey E. Epstein traveled outside of the United States from the date of his registration as a sex offender in June 2008 to August 2019.” The Office of Sex Offender Sentencing, Monitoring, Apprehending, Registering, and Tracking (“SMART Office”) is responsible for providing jurisdictions with guidance regarding the implementation of the Adam Walsh Act, and providing technical assistance to the states, territories, Indian tribes, local governments, and to public and private organizations. The SMART Office does not, and has never, maintained any records or files on individual sex offenders, nor does it track, or monitor or receive notifications regarding the international travel of individual offenders. Information about specific individual sex offenders, to include the international travel of and/or the compliance with international travel requirements for an individual sex offender, is best obtained from jurisdiction(s) in which the sex offender lives, works, or attends school.

Accordingly, the SMART Office does not have any information that is responsive to your request. We would advise that you contact the United States Marshals Service National Sex Offender Targeting Center; INTERPOL-Washington; the Federal Bureau of Investigation; and/or the Department of Homeland Security Angel Watch Center directly if you have questions about what information, if any, those agencies may have in their possession.

Sincerely,

Director

cc: [REDACTED]
General Counsel
Office of Justice Programs

