Jeff,

My understanding from the clerk's office is that if we provide your email address to the clerk, she will send you an invitation to the video conference. You will then be able to join the conference, but you would only observe and would not speak on the record.

If you would like to do so, please let me know what email address(es) I should send to the clerk.

Thanks,

[REDACTED], neither Laura Menninger nor I are admitted to practice in the District of New Hampshire and given that we had no notice of the arrest we have not submitted any request to appear pro hac. Accordingly, I doubt we can appear. I would like to be able to listen to the proceedings and am wondering if you are aware of there is a public access phone number.

Chris, Mark, and Jeff:

The clerk's office in the District of New Hampshire plans to send email invitations to the video conference for this afternoon's proceedings. The USAO in New Hampshire has asked us to gather the email addresses for the attorneys who will appear for the defense. Would you please let us know the names and email addresses of the attorneys who plan to join the video conference this afternoon?

Thanks,

Following up, the District of New Hampshire has informed us that local counsel will need to appear for Ms. Maxwell at the presentment this afternoon.

Chris, Mark, and Jeff,

We are writing to inform you that the FBI arrested your client, Ghislaine Maxwell, this morning in Bradford, New Hampshire. I have attached the indictment and arrest warrant, which we are providing to you as a courtesy while we seek the formal unsealing of the indictment in SDNY this morning. We will let you know when a district judge is assigned in SDNY. The defendant is currently being transported for arrest processing by the FBI, and our current expectation is that she will be presented this afternoon in the District of New Hampshire, via remote proceedings. We will update you as we learn more.

[REDACTED], and I are available for a call later this morning, if that would be useful. Please let us know what time would be convenient for you.

Thanks,
