Subject: Ghislaine Maxwell 02879-509

Good morning-

In my email of 8/9 (see below), I raised concerns regarding use of the MDC Zoom platform because it does not preclude third parties with access information to the Zoom "Courtrooms" from interfering (inadvertently or intentionally) with Ms. Maxwell's privileged communication.

That concern manifested itself today when third parties accessed the Zoom room used by Ms. Maxwell and counsel.

This breach was reported to, and I believe witnessed by, MDC staff, including technician [REDACTED]

This severely impacts confidential privileged attorney-client communication and is especially concerning in this high-profile case.

I am requesting that we immediately revert back to the WebEx platform controlled by Cohen & Gresser.

Please contact me to discuss.

Thank you-

Bobbi

It is my understanding that the new MDC Zoom platform does not preclude third parties who have the access information to the Zoom "Courtroom" from interfering (inadvertently or intentionally) with Ms. Maxwell's privileged communication.
