

From: "The Invisible Man" <[REDACTED]>
To: "G. Max" <[REDACTED]>
Subject: RE: Re: Sent: Thu, 28 Feb 2002 06:30:20 -0000

I am overwhelmed at the kindness and generosity of the offers that are being made for me.

I would love to do them all but fear that there would not be enough time! However I am afraid that horses and I do not mix particularly well but the trip to see the Lines sounds really interesting. As far as food is concerned I am very easy and will fit in with whatever he plans and I don't mind what time it is at all. As for girls well I leave that entirely to you and Juan Estoban!

I am going to have more time after tomorrow to know what will happen and when in Peru so I will be in touch again on Friday.

Masses of love A xxx

-----Original Message-----

From: G. Max [mailto:[REDACTED]]
Sent: 28 February 2002 00:30
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: Fwd: Re:

>What do you think

Gx

From: "Juanesteban Ganoza" <[REDACTED]>
>To: "G. Max" <[REDACTED]>
>Subject: Re:
>Date: Wed, 27 Feb 2002 17:48:10 -0800
>X-Mailer: Microsoft Outlook Express 4.72.3110.1
>
>Ok, before we speak on the phone...
>
>There are several things we could do on Sunday, depending on what he feels >like doing:
>
>We could ride Peruvian Paso horses in the morning > I would organize a small >group of friends and get a few horses and go either to the beach or the >fields. Then we can go to a nice summer home and do a small / private lunch >in front of the sea, and at night we can go to a local restaurant. The >night time on Sunday is not going to be so "active," as a lot of the >restaurants are closed, and on Sunday nites people do not go out much except >to go to a movie (so no night club going).
>
>Instead of the Peruvian Pasos, we could also organize a Polo game if he >plays polo and would rather ride that type of horse.
>
>Or we can rent a small plane and go to see the Nazca Lines, and then go to >another place that is in the area called Paracas and go water-skiing still >in the morning. Paracas is a very special bay for water-skiing, very flat >in the early morning and very windy latter on. We can then have lunch in a >very nice private Hacienda near by or come back to Lima to have lunch by the >sea. Lunches in Lima on the summer time are late, around 3:30 pm or 4 pm >(after lots of wine and beach).

>

>

>About the girls... how old is he ? I doubt it that he will find someone >here, but we can try.

>I am leaving now to go to the gym. I will be back to my office early >tomorrow; if you prefer to talk to me tonight you can reach me at my mobile

>

>Besos

>JE

>

>

>