Hi [REDACTED]:

You can open the envelopes. They are sealed pleadings that have the minor victim names in them. The law firm mailed copies to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED].

Sorry it took a little while to get back to you.

Hi [REDACTED],

The vendor sent me the attached photographs of two sealed envelopes contained in the SDFL Epstein files. One is marked "SEALED DOCUMENT" and the second is marked "CONFIDENTIAL." Each of the sealed envelopes was contained in an open envelope addressed to AUSA [REDACTED] from the same law firm (photos of those two open envelopes are also attached).

Is it alright for me to ask the vendor to open both envelopes and scan the contents for my office to review? I know your office indicated we could review the entire file, but I wanted to check before opening a sealed envelope.

Thanks,

Here they are. One is from a box marked US V Brodie et al. One is from a box labeled court documents, negotiations, statements, document production
