[REDACTED]

As an update, Judge Berman has scheduled a conference regarding the dismissal of the indictment in light of Epstein's death for Tuesday, August 27th at 10:30am in Courtroom 17B of the [REDACTED]. The order scheduling the conference indicated that Judge Berman will allow victims to be heard—either directly or through their counsel—during the proceeding. If any of your clients would like to attend the conference but cannot afford the travel costs, our office's victim witness coordinator ([REDACTED]) can provide assistance in arranging travel. They are certainly not required to attend, but we wanted to let you know that the option is available.

Feel free to give me a call if you have any questions or would like to discuss.

Thanks,

[REDACTED]

We've discussed victim resources before, but I wanted to follow up as a reminder to say that if any of your clients would like counseling or other victim services, please let them know that they are encouraged to contact the case agent on this case, who can put them in touch with victim services at FBI. The agent is Special Agent [REDACTED], and her phone number is [REDACTED]. We recognize that this is a complicated and stressful time for victims, so we wanted to remind you that resources are available.

Our team is always available if issues come up, so please feel free to give us a call.

Thanks,
