We received the below email yesterday. Our view is that you are the appropriate point of contact for French officials, so we will not be responding directly to this inquiry. As we have previously discussed, our investigation has not revealed evidence of crimes committed by Brunel in France or any Epstein victims who were French citizens. Given the confidentiality concerns we've previously discussed, we cannot provide any additional information.

Happy to have a call next week if you think that would be helpful.

Thanks,

Hello,

I am the deputy of the Central Unit for Minors Protection in France and this unit is in charge of the french case against EPSTEIN and J-L BRUNEL.

We are actively trying to investigate crimes committed in France or abroad by J-L BRUNEL against french or foreign victims and any implication BRUNEL had in providing women and young girls for EPSTEIN.

We have officialy reached out to certain government officials in the US to try to coordinate our efforts but we haven't received any substantiel communication or assistance. Our request was maybe directed to the wrong people.

We would really like to coordinate our efforts with you in this case and would like to know what your intentions are, if your have any, concerning Jean Luc BRUNEL.

We have started to collect quite a few victim statements of rape against BRUNEL but because of the statute of limitations we can not pursue him for these rapes. For these victims, we would really like to have a strong case against him and find other victims. Any information linked to BRUNEL could help us.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]
