Dear Counsel:

I met with [REDACTED] and I need time to evaluate matters. Regarding the subpoena to testify before the Grand Jury on July 24, we hereby notify you that if called as a witness [REDACTED] would invoke her Fifth Amendment privilege against compelled self-incrimination. Please let me know if you will require her to invoke in person or whether this communication suffices and no appertaining will be required.

Yours truly,

Michael Bachner

Mr. Bachner,

Following up on our conversation earlier this morning, we wanted to provide you with the additional information and materials we discussed. In the first instance, so that you have full contact info for the team, please feel free to reach out to any of us at any time; we're all available via email or at the following phone numbers:

[REDACTED]

Additionally, attached are the non-prosecution agreement, previously publicly filed in civil proceedings in Florida, and a blank version of our standard proffer agreement, both as discussed.

As we mentioned, please don't hesitate to reach out with any questions, and we look forward to setting a time to speak again after you're able to confer with [REDACTED]

thank you,
