Date of entry 01/21/2020

On or about January 8, 2020, writer contacted [REDACTED], date of birth 11/28/1944 at [REDACTED]. The purpose of the call was to ascertain [REDACTED]'s availability in scheduling an in-person interview. [REDACTED] was willing to meet in person to be interviewed. While on the call, [REDACTED] provided the following information:

[REDACTED] advised that she did not know JEFFREY EPSTEIN and GHISLAINE MAXWELL all that well. [REDACTED] and her daughter, [REDACTED] went to EPSTEIN's home; [REDACTED] was in his home one time. At a later date, EPSTEIN told [REDACTED] that he wanted [REDACTED] to move to New York with he and MAXWELL. [REDACTED] told them no. EPSTEIN and MAXWELL loved art and wanted to help [REDACTED]. They lied to [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] advised she did not know what happened with her daughter because she was working.

[REDACTED] advised that when she found out what had happened to her daughter, she called [REDACTED] and asked her how come she did not tell her. [REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] cried on the phone to her. [REDACTED]'s son contacted her and asked her how she did not know what was going on.

[REDACTED] advised that EPSTEIN and MAXWELL were evil. [REDACTED] stated MAXWELL is "evil, evil as can be". [REDACTED] felt that MAXWELL was worse than EPSTEIN because MAXWELL appealed to her as a mother. [REDACTED] advised that EPSTEIN and MAXWELL destroyed her life.
