Not sure to what extent this would be relevant, but just for your awareness — ABC News has learned that the Crim chief in SDFL was allegedly having an affair with one of Epstein's attorneys.

I defer to you and to our chiefs on what if anything should be communicated to the Post about this, but the background is: the FBI and the Office of Professional Responsibility are meeting with victims to discuss OPR's findings in connection with their investigation of the Southern District of Florida's dealings with victims. This will largely deal with the Crime Victims' Rights Act and the manner in which the NPA was negotiated. The meeting will not discuss the criminal investigation or anything dealing with our office.
