From my call today with Abel at AT&T's court center, this email will likely generate a ticket that will lead their tech people to search for the record in their system. Abel says this will exhaust AT&T's ability to find anything, but if we get a negative response, I'll talk to [REDACTED] and ask for a call with whatever tech worked on this.

Subject: Certification Request

Good afternoon,

I'm writing to request certification of the attached AT&T record. I have also attached a cover letter that is attached to the CD containing the record. The CD itself has a file code of 229703 and a date of 8/23/2006.

If you have any questions, or if you have difficulty certifying the record, please give me a call at the below number.

Thank you,
