Hi Paul,

We've spoken before in connection with the investigation—I'm happy to be in touch again, and obviously I've been extensively in touch with [REDACTED]. My understanding was that my communications with [REDACTED] were in service of meeting the Government's obligations under the CVRA as to [REDACTED], but please let me know if that's not the case and we need to be in touch with all three of you at all times. And I also note we're in receipt of your notice regarding [REDACTED] view on bail, which [REDACTED] also expressed to us when we met with [REDACTED] in person on Monday.

I'd also be happy to talk via phone, including regarding the possibility of an application to intervene. Would it be convenient for me to give you a call at 3:30 eastern time (in about 30 minutes)? Or I could also talk at 5:15 or later.

thank you,

Subject: [REDACTED] - notice of appearance and bail information

Hi [REDACTED],

I am an attorney who represents [REDACTED], one of Jeffrey Epstein's victims.

I write because [REDACTED] and I plan to enter a notice of appearance in the Epstein criminal case, to protect [REDACTED] rights under the CVRA. See attached.

I also write to alert you that [REDACTED] also hopes that Epstein will continue to be detained pending trial. My phone number is [REDACTED]. Perhaps you give me a quick call at your convenience.
