Hi [REDACTED]

Still ploughing through the case and going to places w this I never dreamed but all is good.

I hate to bother you about the past but I remember you saying you we're familiar w the Ron Eppinger case and knew someone from the inside that personally was there at the time. I'm not going after Eppinger or anything like that just putting together pieces of a puzzle that's not so nice to remember.

I know Eppinger was arrested in 01' and not for any charges [REDACTED] but for illegally transporting women from Chez Republic and soliciting them for prostitution but what I'm trying to figure out is what year [REDACTED] Charlie's place (club owner of hot chocolates bar & restaurant in Ft.Lauderdale).

I'm not even sure you would even remember but I was hoping for a long shot. I appreciate any relevant info about this that you can remember or even get me in touch w the kind gentleman who took good care of me [REDACTED], tell him it would be a privilege to speak w someone who actually took the time to care empathetically about someone else they hardly knew me & let him know that I'm actually am advocate for speaking out about these ruthless crimes.

I'm so sorry again to plague you w my troubles!!

Kindest Regards,
[REDACTED]
