Marc Weinstein and Andrew Tomback represent the co-executors of the estate (Darren Indyke and Richard Kahn).

Hi [REDACTED],

Thanks— from what I remember, the estate communicated with you directly about this, so I don't remember getting a list.

Hi [REDACTED],

Hope you're doing well, and thanks very much for your help with privilege issues for this review. In our review of this database, we have come across some communications (emails and reports) from private investigators— among others, an investigator named Roy Black. We are generally aware that Epstein hired private investigators in connection with a criminal investigation and related civil litigation in Florida.

We don't know whether these materials are privileged. Could you possibly confer with the estate attorneys to determine whether they are asserting a privilege over communications by private investigators? In the meantime, we will stop reviewing the database unless we hear from you otherwise.

Thanks very much,

[REDACTED]

That is Jack Goldberger's email address. I'll ask to have the Goldberger hits pulled now and will let you know when they are moved out.

Hi [REDACTED],

For the Epstein search warrant database, I saw an email from the following email address that I wanted to flag for further privilege review, because it may belong to Jack Goldberger, who represented Epstein:
