Sure, we can meet like 10 minutes before and chat, shouldn't take long but would be good to say hello beforehand. And it'll be on the 6th floor but feel free to just come straight to my office on the 8th floor when you arrive. See you soon.

[REDACTED],

6pm works for us - did you want us to come a few minutes early to go over anything? What floor will the meeting be on at SDNY?

Thanks,

Mr. Hay is out with an interview with Town & Country today where he talks about having discussed strategy with Epstein for rehabbing his image. Can we have someone serve him this week? Can be just a subpoena drop if resources are stretched.

Two quick things – first, we'd like to set up a meeting for this coming week with [REDACTED] who previously worked with Epstein, and possibly her younger sister as well. I don't believe they were underage victims of Epstein, but they apparently have useful information and also may have been victims of coercive sexual encounters with Epstein and/or his associates. Any days or times this week you would not be available for that?

Separately, there have now been two stories in the Times where a publicist, Mr. R. Couri Hay, has been referenced as having recently been told by Epstein about Epstein's prior conduct. Can we please try to contact him? Can issue him a subpoena, attached, if he doesn't want to be interviewed informally.

(Here's the latest reference to him: "Just three months ago, as federal prosecutors were closing in with new charges, Mr. Epstein had a conversation with R. Couri Hay, a publicist, about continuing to improve his reputation. Mr. Epstein asserted that what he was convicted of did not constitute pedophilia, said Mr. Hay, who declined to represent him. The girls he had sex with were "twens and teens," Mr. Epstein told him.")

thanks,
