I think the hope is in advance of Thursday, yeah – certainly we don't need them at any particular time, and we're just the messengers! And I should say, sorry to drop it on you with little notice and with that deadline. But from our perspective tomorrow would be totally fine and totally understandable.

Separately, in terms of the program, when I clicked on the executable file program it led me to a download page, and so it's possible IT may be able to download that for you?? You may have more pull with them than we do! But at least at a glance it looks like an external program, rather than one totally self-contained in the folder (like certain bank returns, e.g.).

Also, is it ok if I get these to you tomorrow? It's slow going with the shared. I assume they need to be ready in advance of the Thursday meeting with the [REDACTED]?

Have any of you been able to open the application that was provided with these videos? If so, how?

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] has asked us to have video clips created from the deposition videos of Ghislaine Maxwell in connection with the Epstein investigation. There are approximately 11 question and answer sequences he's interested in, and they're listed on pages 19-28 of the attached word document. The page numbers referenced in that doc correspond to the two PDF transcripts also attached.

The videos are in the following folder, which you should have access to, and appear to be visible through a viewer program that was produced to us:

[\\Usa.doj.gov\cloud\NYS\StAndrews\Shared\USvEpstein-2018R01618\Investigation# 2018 SDNY investigation\Subpoena Returns\\[REDACTED\]\2020-05-02,\[REDACTED\] third subpoena response\Videos](\\Usa.doj.gov\cloud\NYS\StAndrews\Shared\USvEpstein-2018R01618\Investigation# 2018 SDNY investigation\Subpoena Returns\[REDACTED]\2020-05-02,[REDACTED] third subpoena response\Videos)

If you could please include about 30 seconds before and after each of the relevant exchanges, that would be helpful to show the full context of the Q&As. And if you could please put the snippets in a folder that's accessible to [REDACTED], [REDACTED], and also include us on the link, that would be great.

Please let us know if any questions or issues, and thanks very much as always.
