Sure, feel free to grab one of them (but not both, it will overwhelm the conference line), but I think one of us should take notes, which I'm happy to do.

Can we have a very quick chat in advance of the call? I'm free any time before then.

I explained what you shared with me with [REDACTED]. She would like to speak with you directly. Would you be available for a conference call with her and me tomorrow at 4P.M. e.s.t.?

Gloria, we do need to use a conference line after all – if you could please dial in at:

Dial-in: [REDACTED]

Code: [REDACTED]

And I'll send an Outlook meeting invite as well, in case that's helpful, and we'll speak with you in 15 minutes. Thank you again.

Gloria,

We were wondering if you or your colleagues have been able to reach any of the clients we discussed last week? It would be very helpful to know their views and reactions shortly – and we're of course happy to speak with them directly as well if that would be helpful.

thanks,

Gloria,

Would you have time for a call with the SDNY Epstein team tomorrow or Friday? We would like to provide you with a bit of an update and discuss some of your clients in particular.

Hope you are staying safe and healthy.

Best,
