On or about August of 2009, Bradley James Edwards, date of birth 11/16/1975, was contacted by Alfredo Rodriguez, date of birth 04/12/1975. Edwards is an attorney who is representing four female individuals who are suing Jeffrey Epstein. Rodriguez was an employee for Epstein. Edward's deposed Rodriguez and served him with a federal subpoena to provide any and all documents relating to the case. Rodriguez is trying to sell Edwards documents that he claims are pertinent to the civil case. Edwards explained to Rodriguez that his demands are illegal and that he was obligated under subpoena to turn the documents over. Rodriguez is still demanding $50,000.00 for the documents. Edwards will make a consensual call to Rodriguez and introduce an Under Cover Employee (UCE) to complete the transaction. The UCE will call Rodriguez to collect criminal conversation and set up a meeting. UCE will meet with Rodriguez to collect criminal conversation and complete the transaction.

Some states, by law, prohibit recordings of conversations or communications without the consent of all parties to the conversation or communication, although under federal law the FBI may undertake these recordings. Under FBI guidelines, one party consensual recording of communications occurring in these states may be considered "Otherwise Illegal Activity" unless an exception to the prohibition is available for law enforcement activity, including that undertaken by the FBI. By signature below, the SAC (or designee) approves the consenting party's possible Otherwise Illegal Activity in the event the recording takes place in a state with such a prohibition.
