

ALFREDO RODRIGUEZ, date of birth [REDACTED], social security number [REDACTED], of [REDACTED], was interviewed, after waiving his Miranda Rights, at [REDACTED]. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agents and the purpose of the interview, he provided the following information:

RODRIGUEZ worked for JEFFREY EPSTEIN as a house manager for approximately six months between 2004 and 2005. During his employment he obtained a copy of a black book and other papers that had the contact information for numerous individuals. RODRIGUEZ claimed that many of the individuals in the book were underage (minor) females. RODRIGUEZ stated that he forgot that he had these items until the past couple of months. RODRIGUEZ wanted to sell these items for $50,000.00 to attorney BRADLEY EDWARDS because he had been unable to work since losing his job with EPSTEIN. During RODRIGUEZ' employment with EPSTEIN he (RODRIGUEZ) saw naked minor females sunbathing at EPSTEIN's pool, he saw images of naked minor females on EPSTEIN's computer, and he knew that EPSTEIN was having sexual contact with minor females at his house. RODRIGUEZ was occasionally tasked with cleaning sex toys after the minor females had departed the residence. RODRIGUEZ did not tell the FBI nor any other law enforcement agency about this information, even though he knew there was an investigation, because he was scared of EPSTEIN. RODRIGUEZ claimed that he did give the Palm Beach Police Department some information related to the EPSTEIN investigation.
