Thanks a Million...I think about you guys all the time...Wish You All were here with me....this place isn't any better, in fact, we're waiting to see if anything changes after this mess is over....the officers have been mandated here upwards of five days in a row for over a year and are exhausted....no one wants to listen and when you tell them, you're on their hit list....the Bureau is looking bad all over...everyone here is jumping ship to Boarder Patrol/US Marshals or other Departments...it's terrible.....I think about you guys often...just because I don't write doesn't mean I'm not thinking or talking about you guys to my staff here.....Miss Ya....Stay Safe.....
