done

6A-2pm- as SHO Lt.

no PM SHO Lt. @ MCC, other institutions have it

BOP. annual refresher training, last one @ 26 Fed.

SHO training- quarterly w/ new staff members (officers) assigned to SHO info.

- anyone mandated- in post orders

- suicide prevention training is part of it, goes over signs, what to do if happens, etc.

- if inmate on suicide watch, inmate will have cellmate

- AS Ops Lt., visits SHO approx. once a day, removed learned of Epstein once in MCC, heard about first suicide attempt but wasn't working then, he was on suicide watch + then brought back upstairs, cellmate

(Raines) was placed w/ him

- [REDACTED] wasn't at any SHO meetings for Epstein

████████ placed Epstein w/ Reyes
- Cos during shift knew to keep them together (day watch)
- ████████ told Epstein he would be placed w/ him - no issues not list - psychology - inmates who had been on suicide watch/ require a bunky (cellmate)
- OT at STU - requires being mobile + getting paperwork ready for ADM
- recalled email, sent before Reyes was placed w/ him
- 8/9 - Ops Lt. - 8A-4pm (scheduled), actually worked 6A-2pm Reyes moved in morning, new cellmate wasn't placed ████████ was waiting to see who new cellmate would be decided, Captain or Psychology would make that decision
- ~~Anyone~~ Epstein couldn't have been placed w/ just anyone
- didn't tell relief or Captain ██████████ that Reyes had left █ didn't speak to any of the CO's that were coming on to next shift

didn't work 8/10 - heard about it on news

- Cos get from 9th - 10th floor via stairs, can take elevator from 9th - 11th, 10th - is not a full floor, like an attic

- bathrooms on 9th + 10th for CO's, females mostly use 10th b/c more private/ comfortable

- if do rand you pick up phone, and control lets you in/same as bathroom
