Dear Nicolas Roos:

This letter is to acknowledge receipt of the preservation request submitted on 08/15/2019 4:00:49 PM.

A thorough search has been completed. The following records were found and have been preserved in response to your request:

Target Number(s):

[Redacted]

- Stored Content
- IP Connection Logs - Including Cell Site Records
- Call Detail Records - Including Cell Site Records
- Subscriber Information

Target Number(s):

[Redacted]

- Stored Content
- IP Connection Logs - Including Cell Site Records
- Call Detail Records - Including Cell Site Records
- Subscriber Information

If you requested one of the above listed items, and you do not see a check mark beside that item, it means there were no records found for that item during the requested time period.

 In order for us to provide information or records, please remember to send a request indicating your authorized date range. To avoid delayed compliance in the future, please include a date range on any and all future requests, including requests for subscriber information.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C § 2703 (a), we must have a search warrant or court order with a probable cause statement signed by a judge in order to release any content of stored communications. Once records have been preserved, the request is considered fulfilled. Sprint will not preserve stored content on a daily basis. If you would like records to be preserved for future dates, please submit a new preservation request.

Please use the contact information listed above for any questions or further inquiries regarding this request.

Sincerely,
Steven Hayes

If your request includes subscriber information, call detail records, or cell site information, please note, all available records have been preserved. As a regular business practice, Sprint only stores incoming digits and cell site information on its CDMA networks for a finite period of time in an "online" call detail record (hereinafter, "CDR") archive. For the CDMA network (formerly known as the Sprint PCS network), we are able to provide CDR information for approximately 90 days to 18 months from the date of processing. Prior to this time period, Sprint maintains CDR only in the format of customer bills, which provide the date and time of an incoming call, but not the incoming digits or location information.
