Keeper of the Records

RE: Grand Jury Subpoena

Dear Sir/Madam:

Pursuant to an official investigation being conducted by a federal Grand Jury in the District of the Virgin Islands of suspected violations of federal and related territorial criminal laws, your company is requested to furnish to the Grand Jury the documents described in the attached subpoena.

You are requested not to disclose the existence of this subpoena, nor the fact of your compliance therewith, to anyone, including particularly the customer, for a period of ninety (90) days from the date of compliance with the subpoena. While you are not required to comply with this non-disclosure request, any such disclosure by the company could impede the investigation and thereby interfere with the enforcement of federal criminal law.

You may address any questions regarding this request to the Assistant United States Attorney whose name and number appears on the subpoena.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PRODUCTION OF RECORDS & CERTIFICATION

- I. General
 - A. Records existing as Electronically Stored Information (ESI) shall be produced in electronic form and shall include text data and image data held:
 - 1. In your record retention systems; and/or
 - 2. By your technology, data, or other service provider(s).
 - B. Records that do not exist as ESI may be produced in paper or other original format and may be converted to image or text data and provided as ESI, unless originals are required.
- II. Text Data
 - A. Text data relating to transactions shall be produced within a data file:
 - 1. Using a delimited ASCII text data format; or
 - 2. Using software that can export to a commonly readable, non-proprietary file format without loss of data.
 - B. Text data files relating to transactions shall include field descriptions (e.g., account number, date/time, description, payee/payor, check number, item identifier, and amount).
- III. Image Data
 - A. Image data shall be produced in graphic data files in a commonly readable, non-proprietary format with the highest image quality maintained.
 - B. Image data of items associated with transactions (e.g., checks and deposit slips) shall be:
 - 1. Produced in individual graphic data files with any associated endorsements; and
 - 2. Linked to corresponding text data by a unique identifier.
- IV. Encryption/Authentication
 - A. ESI may be transmitted in an encrypted container. Decryption keys and/or passwords shall be produced separately at the time the data are produced.
 - B. Authentication, such as hash coding, may be set by agreement.
 - C. Affidavits or certificates of authenticity may be included as part of the electronic production.
- V. Cost Reimbursement
 - A. Costs that are reasonably necessary and have been directly incurred in searching for, reproducing, or transporting records may be reimbursable. See the Right to Financial Privacy Act, 12 U.S.C., Section 3415 and Federal Reserve Board Regulation S, 12 C.F.R., Part 219 (revised effective 1/1/2010).

To recipient of grand jury subpoena:

Law enforcement officials have served upon you a grand jury subpoena that requires the production of the items specified on the date indicated. You may comply with this subpoena in one of three ways:

1. Deliver the requested items to the law enforcement official serving the subpoena;
2. Mail the requested items to the law enforcement official serving the subpoena at the specified address by certified mail, return receipt requested, in sufficient time to reach that law enforcement official by the compliance date; or
3. Appear in person to present the requested items to the grand jury on the compliance date.

Records provided in compliance with the subpoena will remain in the custody of the grand jury until the grand jury investigation and related proceedings are completed.

Please complete the enclosed Declaration Certifying Records of Regularly Conducted Activity and return it with the records. Returning this completed form may eliminate the necessity of your having to appear in person in court in the future.

You may address any questions regarding this request to the Assistant United States Attorney whose name and number appears on the subpoena.
